'Manipur violence has taken away my house, my dream, everything we had' : Indian Footballer CHINGLENSANA SINGH

'Manipur violence has taken away my house, my dream, everything we had' The violence was sparked by a court ruling in March that granted the majority Meitei scheduled caste status, entitling them to the same economic benefits and quotas in government jobs and education as the minority Kuki. Chinglensana Singh; A visual from Manipur

NEW DELHI: It was a humid May evening as usual in Kozhikode, as Indian footballer Chinglensana Singh ambled down the ground to enter the dressing room. Once there, he saw a trail of text messages and a barrage of missed calls on his phone. Worried, he promptly tried returning the calls but to no avail. But soon the Centre-back from strife-torn Manipur found out that he had lost almost everything in the violence that broke out in the State on May 3, the same day that he was representing Hyderabad FC in an AFC Cup playoff (Asian continental tournament) match against Mohun Bagan in faraway Kozhikode. "It has taken away everything from us, everything we earned, everything we had," the player, hailing from Khumujama Leikai in Churachandpur district, told PTI. "I heard the news of our house being torched and then the football turf that I built in Churachandpur was burnt. It was really heartbreaking. "I had the big dream of providing a platform to the youngsters but it was taken away. Fortunately, my family escaped the violence and was shifted to a relief centre," he added. After trying for a while, when the 27-year-old finally managed to get in touch with his mother, wailing at the other end amid the sound of gunshots in one of the epicentres of the violence, he immediately decided to go back to his parents. He couldn't delay any longer, as the clashes had by then destroyed his house, ravaged his village, and dashed his hopes of giving wings to aspiring footballers' dreams. Only his family survived. Relieved at having them around, he is now thinking of ways to overcome the profoundly disturbing experience, and start afresh. "I always had a big dream of providing a platform to the youngsters in Churachandpur who are talented but they couldn't afford to enrol in a football school. "My aim was to provide them a platform, to help them become professional players and then go on and play for the national team... become great players for the country. Then this incident happened, so everything is being robbed. But we will try to start again." The violence was sparked by a court ruling in March that granted the majority Meitei scheduled caste status, entitling them to the same economic benefits and quotas in government jobs and education as the minority Kuki. It also allowed Meiteis to buy land in the hills, where the Kukis predominately live, further fuelling fears that their lands, jobs and opportunities would be taken away. Tension escalated in the northeastern state when a video of May 4 emerged on social media, showing men from one community parading two women naked from the opposing side.

Michelle Yeoh, fiancee Jean Todt marry after 19-year engagement

Yeoh, 60, and Todt, the former CEO of Ferrari, got married in Geneva last week; they were engaged in 2004

GENEVA: Oscar-winning Malaysian actor Michelle Yeoh has tied the knot with longtime fiancee Jean Todt, the former CEO of Ferrari, after a 19-year engagement, Page Six reported. Yeoh, who became the first Asian woman to win an Oscar in March, said "I do" in a small ceremony in Geneva, Switzerland on Thursday. The 'Everything, Everywhere, All At Once' actor and Todt were all smiles as they celebrated their big day with a few close friends, including Brazilian racing driver Felipe Massa.

Yeoh, who became the first Asian woman to win an Oscar in March, said "I do" in a small ceremony in Geneva, Switzerland on Thursday.

The 'Everything, Everywhere, All At Once' actor and Todt were all smiles as they celebrated their big day with a few close friends, including Brazilian racing driver Felipe Massa. Felipe Massa shared photos from the wedding on Instagram with the caption, "Happy marriage!" #JeanTodt & #michelleyeoh adore you." The first photo was of the couple's wedding card, which highlighted romantic information about their love journey, as per PageSix. "On June 4, 2004, we met in Shanghai. "On July 26, 2004, J.T. proposed to M.Y and she said YES," the card says. "Today, on the 27th of July 2023, after 6992 days, in Geneva, surrounded by loving family and friends, we are so happy to celebrate this special moment together." The actor even held her Oscar statue as seen in her wedding photos. On the big day, Yeoh donned two outfits, a beige-town gown with a corset bodice and gold embellishments and a bridal white skirt with a white silk button-up shirt. Todt dressed up for the occasion in a blue suit. Yeoh met Todt for the first time in Shanghai, China, and told PageSix citing the Financial Times that meeting him was "like a fairytale." Todt, who helped Ferrari win many world championships before taking over as FIA president until 2021, previously disclosed that Michael Schumacher had assisted him in sending his first-ever SMS message to Yeoh.

Inside the Mind of a Prophet

Candid Conversations with Kiran Murali on Faith, Family, and the Power of Prayer

Dr VGP: Hello and welcome to Dr VGP Talk Show that reaches 42 million households including two million across America.

Dr. VGP: Today we have with us at the Yellow Box studio in Naperville of the Global Eye Digital TV channel none other than anointed servant of our Almighty Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ a simple humble no obligation spiritual Prophet please welcome Kiran Murali, a telugu by birth born and brought up in Chennai, India and today is spreading the love of Christ through Humanity through Miracles, through healing and through prophecy, becoming the hope for the world. Prophet Kiran Murali we are so grateful to you for joining us amidst your busy schedule. He has been in the Chicagoland area for three days participating in the Indian Mission Telugu United Methodist Church's 30th Annual Holy Convocation. While he was criss-crossing town and we grabbed him and for quick interview. Thank you so much Prophet for joining us today and we would like you to share your inspiring story of what drew you to serve Humanity? You are so selflessly serving humanity and you are the most sought after anointed servant of Christ who we fondly called as the prophet. Prophet Kiran Murali prophecies, heals and gives hope for the suffering. Prophet Kiran Murali gives confidence and he sustains each of us through our tribulations. Join us in a candid conversation. Apostle Kiran Murali I would say Prophet Brother Kiran Murali brother tell us about your early childhood?

Prophet Murali: It's such a great joy to meet you, Dr Vijay and we believe that God is doing great things through you and this program has been a blessing for so many other people. God is doing great things, yes it's a great joy, thank you. To talk about my early age, I was born in a Hindu family and we didn't know Christ. We didn't know Christ. We were living an ordinary life, but I was living a life of failure that in my school, I was a failure in my college and I was a failure as my principal and my teachers used to say. "Kiran, you don't have that future we can believe and hope for all the thousands of students, but for you we don't see any future." Because they would say there's no hope in you that used to bother me. I used to smile but there was a sorrow in my heart. Why should I have no hope?

Dr. VGP: How old were you then, Prophet?

Prophet Murali: Almost from my 15th year this was just continuing year after year. I failed in all my grades and I didn't do really well. So one day I really wanted to end my life. I thought if I don't have hope then why not I end my life. So I was little drunk, a little doped and I was smoking. I said, Jesus! I want to die. If you are God, I don't need a God. I need a friend. I need a friend who can believe in me because all I was searching for is somebody who could believe in me. Then I heard a very Audible Voice which said my son fear not.

Amen. I was shocked, Can a God talk to a sinner? I could feel Jesus when my shirt was stinking of whiskey. I could feel Jesus when I smelt weed and that's when I understood God loves humanity.

Dr. VGP: And you were all of 15 years at then?

Prophet Murali: Yeah. When I had this experience, I was 18 years old.

Dr. VGP: 18 years old Wow!

Prophet Murali: And that's when I understood Jesus loves everyone.

Dr. VGP: Yes, you said it so well. That you had to go through such experiences including all the teenage challenges. The Temptations in life as you explained so clearly and then when you were wandering looking for a friend you know alcohol, pot- weed, cigarettes, they give you a state of elation. That's right but they are not your friend.

Prophet Murali: That's right.

Dr. VGP: They may be a temporary escape from reality and that's what I think today's youth needs to know. You found a friend in Jesus, that's right. Prophet Kiran, from what I read, hear and see about you is that you are so obedient to God, that you follow God's every step and guidance you don't take any decision.

Prophet Murali: That's right.

Dr. VGP: Could you tell our readers and myself, what's your interest in God's kingdom? Explain to us what is God's kingdom all about?

Prophet Murali: The first experience

changed my approach about God because my approach about God was discipline. He is a God of strict rules that Jesus means. During my first experience I felt His love and I understood when a person understands the love of Jesus, there is no boundaries. Today young people suffer bondage. They don't like discipline. The moment a young person comes into Freedom, they are liberated. We think young people like to go in drugs and to go on alcohol. No, they just want to have a sense and atmosphere of freedom. That's all about my God's Kingdom, that's all about my Jesus Kingdom. I ask God how I propose your kingdom. He said go and tell my people, my kingdom is freedom. That's how I experience Jesus. Even though I am a pastor or a prophet or an evangelist or a brother or a servant of God, it doesn't matter, he proposes a kingdom, a life of freedom that's My God.

Dr. VGP: Well, you just heard Prophet Kiran Murali saying the tenets of God's kingdom is Love and then Freedom.

Prophet Murali: That's right.

Dr. VGP: You are experiencing Freedom! Could you expand on that freedom concept?

Prophet Murali: When I grew up I was always constrained by obligation. When we grow up in India or US or any country, you might always have boundaries and boundaries means limitations. That means you cannot cross your thoughts, you cannot cross your actions and you are judged by your actions. You're judged by your thoughts. But the reason why Jesus gives freedom is because he gives you the liberty. Saying that I am there to cover you up. Freedom simply means God giving you the courage saying, "I am there to back you up." This world may condemn us, you know our neighbours may condemn us, the family may condemn too but Jesus will always back you up.

Dr. VGP: That's very well said about Freedom gives you the Liberty. Freedom gives you the courage that God is there for us and God backs you up always. Yes, you explained earlier what God's kingdom. Now Prophet Kiran Murali, What attracts you to God's Kingdom?

Prophet Murali: You know again, I have to go back to the place where God touched me. I was smelling whiskey and there were hundreds of at least 200 people in that cigarette shop. It's all puzzled and people are going up and down and when God spoke to me, I could just feel that tangible presence of Jesus Christ. That presence gave me a sense of comfort, a sense of strength, a sense of joy. So when I talk about Jesus talk about God's kingdom, and what I love the most is His presence where He is evident.

Dr. VGP: Jesus is Alive, yes. That's the name of your ministry, is that's right? Prophet Kiran Murali is the founder of Jesus's Alive Ministries. Today and I'm sure you're going to tell us how everybody can see that Jesus is Alive. But before that Prophet Kiran Murali I would like you to tell us how did you get anointed? You know there are nine gifts of the Holy Spirit and you got most of them. The gift of speaking in Tongues, the gift of prophesying, the gift of healing, the gift of calling out demons. When did you achieve it? Was it once you accepted Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ as a saviour? You embraced God as you said because of the freedom and the liberty and the courage that God is backing you up. You said you heard a voice "I'm here, do not fear." What did you do next? Did God tell you to fast and pray? How did you receive these gifts of the Holy Spirit, which is making you today a most sought after person? Today you are called as a brother, as an evangelist, as a pastor, as an ambassador of Peace, as a Prophet and you're the most sought after person not only in India, in America and across the World. Enlighten us.

Prophet Murali: I have to again go back to the story of when I experienced the love of Jesus. I became selfish, I said Lord I will just enjoy your love all myself. I don't need to go, I don't need to see people and I don't need to see friends. I was just having a time of Celebration with my God and one day God said, "My son if you want to really love me, if you want to really enjoy my presence, I want you to go and bless my people. I want you to go and tell my people that Jesus is Alive". I said, Lord how do I do this? He said when you have my compassion you will be able to do it. I prayed for God's compassion. I said Lord if you love your people so much give me that love, that same love what you have and what is shown on the cross of Calvary. Give me the love of Jesus and Jesus said "My son I will give you my compassion." The moment I felt the compassion of Jesus I could feel the gifts of the Holy Spirit operate. I understood this thing brother that the gifts of Jesus operates for his people. The only way I received the gift is by knowing his love for everyone in the world. I could feel that compassion when I see people. I get through Jesus's love upon people and all of a sudden gifts operate. When I see people, I am able to prophesy, I was able to see the future. When I see a person who's sick I am able to pray for healing when I see a person possessed by a demon, amen I am moved that that person has to be delivered. Jesus's love for everyone is the fundamental reason that these gifts of the Holy Spirit begin to operate.

Dr. VGP: Great! I mean you are a true anointed servant of Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. You have been receiving the gifts of the Holy Spirit. You have the gift of Prophecy, gift of healing, and the gift of driving out demons. And you also emphasize everywhere you go that one must read the Bible and pray which is the basic tenet of Faith. Could you expound on your faith? So that a readers can know once faith can enhance one's quality of life. May your informational words become transformational in our lives?

Prophet Murali: That's right! The Book of Jeremiah says like this for God has plans for us. We think planning is humanity but the Bible is so clear, the great planner is God. So the Bible says he has a plan for you and me but the problem with humanity is, we are not able to understand the plans which is set before us. Whether you're in corporate, whether you're in education, whether you're a doctor or a lawyer or a businessman or a student, we face confusion. Because we don't know which way to go and the only way to understand your future is to understand the plan of God. That plan of God can be found not in a man of God but in the written word of God. The Book of John chapter 1 says "In the beginning was the word and the Word was with God and the word is God". so God made the beginning. God structured the world from the beginning to the end and even the life goes on one thing which is present, that's the written word of God. So every time you read the Bible, you're reading the plan of God. Every time you're reading the Bible you are isolating yourself from your plans and submitting yourself to God. The word of God can set you in God's plan. The word of God can set you on your future. The word of God gives you courage to pick up the right opportunity. The word of God will give you Joy in your career. The word of God is transformational.

Dr. VGP: Prophet Kiran Murali you said it so well. The word of God can set you free. Just like Prophet Murali had beautifully said, if you've been listening to what he has been saying and paying attention that reading the Bible enhances your everyday life along with prayer. Prayer is talking to God just speaking to God. Brother, could you recall for our reader some of the testimonies of Miracles that God has performed through you one or two different miracles to encourage for our readers.

Prophet Murali: One day I was praying and I got a call and there I could hear a very young woman's voice and she said I'm desperate for prayer. Can you pray for me? That day I was very busy so I said I'll call you back. I put the phone down and again she called me. I could feel God wanted me to pray for her so as I was about to pray, I had a feeling to ask her what your problem?

She says that the doctors has sentenced her husband who was going to die in few months. All the reports were against her husband's health. So she prayed at the mosque, she prayed at the Hindu temple, prayed at the church. Everybody denied hope for that young couple. When this man was going to die his three children who has two years and one four years and one sixth years. The moment I heard the story I started to weep. I said, Lord if this man will die, what is the future of this family? Jesus said my son I want you to tell this woman that her husband is healed today!

Dr. VGP: Amen

Prophet Murali: I was shocked. I was still caught up in the fury of the family but I could feel God say I am healing. So I stopped my prayer. I told that Sister, Jesus is healing your husband. She said no pastor, I cannot believe it because the church is denied, the mosque denied, the Hindu temples have denied and also the doctors have denied, the hospitals have denied. How can I believe? I said the Bible says you are healed by the stripes of Jesus.

Dr. VGP: Amen

Prophet Murali: You were healed, she took that word she went to the doctor. She sold a gold chain to take the test and the doctor said your husband is perfectly fine. I tell you to those of you are watching, people might deny the church, may deny the poor, may deny the Hindu priest, may deny Buddhism, may deny your neighbours and may deny Jesus, but Jesus will never deny. Jesus can heal you.

Dr. VGP: Absolutely such a wonderful testimony shows Jesus is Alive, Amen. Prophet Kiran Murali you know just hearing your story gives me goosebumps to say that Miracles are still happening today. There are several testimonies if you any of your viewers want prayer, you want a miracle, you want a blessing please contact the email address where you can EVANGELISTCKIRAN@YAHOO.CO.IN and Through you can reach out to him use him to as access him so that you can receive blessings and comfort and hope during your challenging times during your Victorious times and during a journey on this Earth. Prophet Kiran Murali could you also expound on whether these blessings and miracles which you are mentioning and which you are performing all over the world are limited only to the Believers of Jesus Christ, our Lord or non-believers too from other religions like Hindus and Muslims and Sikhs and other Jews and everybody else?

Prophet Murali: Amen. The Bible says that if you are if you are a human being Jesus wants to save you. Who is Jesus? Why did God send us Jesus? Was he sin for a religion? Was he sin for Christians the Bible brings out a very good understanding aboard who is God why we need God why Jesus came and for whom he came? The Bible says, God made Heaven and Earth he made man and women, he is the creator of humanity and when I say that the word is the creator of humanity that transcends over any religion. God is there to save the sick, God is there to save the Christian, God is there to save the Roman Catholic, God is there to save the Lutherans, God is there to save the you know the Hindus the Muslims how many of the religions does it matter.

Dr. VGP: Yes, wonderfully said. Jesus is Alive today. You know the prophet Murali has travelled many countries. He has been to Malaysia, Singapore. He has been to America several times and carry this message and trying to lighten the burden of the people through God's prophecy through God's healing touch and miracles. Prophet Murali you also recalled recently about a person who you helped out during a financial difficulty and you gave him an envelope. Could you re recall that miracle for our readers?

Prophet Murali: Hallelujah, so there was A Christian brother graced our home during a challenging financial period. Observing his plight, I extended my assistance, though modest, by placing an amount within a pristine white envelope. I aimed to honor him to the best of my capacity. Upon receiving the envelope, he contemplated discarding it. However, he was halted by a distinct inner voice, guiding him not to dispose of it but to preserve it instead. This small package found its place within a box, soon forgotten as time marched on.

Months slipped away, and a moment arrived when dire financial need struck once more. In a state of desperation, he turned to the Lord, entreating for monetary relief. In that pivotal juncture, divine intervention emerged. The Lord reminded him of a Christian brother, who, nearly a year prior, had offered an envelope now nestled in the confines of the box. Following this divine whisper, he approached the envelope with a sense of scepticism. After all, he believed he had already extracted its contents. However, as his fingers brushed the envelope's surface, he detected an inexplicable fullness. To his astonishment, the envelope was brimming with money. Without hesitation, he contacted me, his words tinged with wonder. He inquired, "Pastor Kiran, how could currency manifest within an ostensibly vacant envelope?" In response, I humbly asserted that I possessed no magical powers, but rather, I was one who communed with Jesus. Citing the scripture, I shared the notion that a close relationship with Jesus yields a transformative power-one that can multiply blessings through one's own hands. This multiplication, I explained, was not my doing but the result of divine intervention. Intrigued, he persisted, longing to acquire this extraordinary blessing of multiplication. In answer, I advised him that when he fully surrendered his life to Jesus and aligned his plans with divine will, his hands would become conduits of divine favour. Just as the touch of his hands could turn barren land fertile, poverty could transmute into prosperity through this divine connection.

Dr. VGP: Absolutely, your powerful prophetic words. You know recalling what you spoke on Friday night at the 30th annual Holy convocation of the India Mission Telugu Methodist Church that you talked about the raining of blessings, the blessings of multiplication just like what you recalled now. Yes one can experience the blessings of multiplications when you know the Lord and speak to God and you surrender to God. Like the Prophet said read the Bible and pray so what is God's will prevail.

Prophet Murali: What is God's will for us God's will for us? Is to be in the Abundant blessing so he is a father, a mother, a brother, a sister and a spouse. We desire our children to be blessed. How much more Jesus Christ wants to prosper you? You know we don't understand number one that Jesus wants to prosper and even if we understand Jesus wants to prosper we don't know how to receive the abundant blessing. The Bible says when you pray to Jesus, when you kneel down in the presence of Jesus, when you lift up your heart to Jesus and say Jesus and I give my life to you. I pray to you when you diligently seek. The Bible says the heaven will pour down on this blessing. You know I recall this verse brother in the Bible the Book of Matthew.

The Bible says there was a need when Jesus was there for the multitudes who did not have food to eat. My Bible says you know how that need turned to become abundance when Jesus lifted up his hand he said father, "Rain your blessings. The need multiply to Prosperity. Prayer will bring the abundant rain in your life. Pray, more pray, more Prayer the only way which will open the access of Heaven. Prayer will bring prosperity into your financial situation, into your health, into your business, into your relationships. The rain of blessings will pour down when you begin to live in the world. I tell you there is no lack. There is only joy, it's only happiness unlimited.

Dr. VGP: So it is prayer that is the secret for the raining of blessings. Talking to God, reading the Bible and praying is so important. Prophet, thank you for reiterating that. On day two of the 30th Annual Holy Convocation you were exhorting us don't to try to solve the problems. Don't try to be a problem solver that's the first time I heard that in my whole life because we thought God makes us instruments to problems as we give them advice counselling, we try to solve problems we feel good as we settle this problem between X and Y. Or this issue which is going on in our community on our neighbourhood so could you expound on that don't try to be a problem solver?

Prophet Murali: That's a wonderful thing to understand, you know the Bible talks about Jesus this way. The Bible says that Jesus delivers his people from his outstretched arms. One day I was much stressed. I was thinking about life. I was thinking about people, problematic people. I was thinking about this world of problems. I was thinking about my problems thinking, about a world problem and all of a sudden I hear a voice the Lord said my son how do I deliver my people. That was right then I was reading that verse and it said by my outstretched hand. God asked me did I use any other hands. Said no. He said that's what I want you to understand. My son I don't need your help I need your faith in me. Believing in God is not using your strength, is letting God use a strength and you sit down and watch. Let God fight the battle for you. Because the Bible says the battle belongs to God and not to you and me. Young people want to solve problems. The government want to solve problems. Humanity want to solve problems. I've been living for past 36 years and I have not seen any human solve the problem. They think they solved a problem but they say it's a special edition and they say that it's a revised leadership. My Bible says if you believe God he solves all the problems. That's when you'll have peace that's when you have rest. You don't have to run or break your head you just have to give your life to Jesus. You just have to believe. He solves all the problems.

Dr. VGP: Very well said Prophet Kiran Murali, keeping faith is important and let God fight the battle.

Prophet Murali: That's right.

Dr. VGP: You don't try to be the problem solution the "problem solver" usually say don't be part of the problem be part of the solution. Prophet Kiran Murali is telling all of us, today let God fight your battle. Keep your faith in God and let God fight your battle. On day three of the Holy convocation you gave us a very profound message. You talked about how success begets success. Lots of successful people and not so successful people suffer from envy. People who are jealous. This and some people just love to criticize for the sake of criticizing.

Prophet Murali: That's right.

Dr. VGP: And your message which was again the first time I've heard. It was so profound. You said "Do not try to uproot those people, who don't like you. Do not try to isolate those people, who are jealous. Do not try to keep aside those people who are criticizing. You ignore them. Let them grow as you grow. Don't let their negative effect their negative comments their negative actions affect you. Let them be in their space of negativity, in their space of jealousy, in their critical mode but you as a person continue in your positive nature and your positive aura. What you're doing keep on doing. Don't try to shut them up. Don't try to isolate them. Don't try to lock them up. Don't try to avoid them. You be in your space and you continue to grow." I mean that's such priceless, precious words of wisdom. For the first time I listen, there's lots of times we listen about forgiveness. Forgive them, go back to them and say hi and forgive them for what they said. Forgiveness, but you have said let them both grow. I mean you the success grows and let the right grow. God is going to act. Could you expand on that "Let both Grow?"

Prophet Murali: Once Jesus was talking to his disciples. These disciples have known the power of God. They have known Jesus came from Heaven. They know the spiritual aspect but the children of God I want to tell you something spirituality doesn't entitle you to live a Victorious Life unless you understand how to bring spirituality into your daily life. Every day we battle what we battle enemies, we battle problems, we battle evil people or evil mind or evil situation or bad situation or problems. The one thing what we try to do is we try to get rid of them. Oh my neighbour is a problem, Oh my master is a problem, and Oh my family is a problem. All my friends are problem, all my boss is a problem. This is how the disciples ask Jesus how we get rid of these weeds. These weeds which disturbs us every day. You know we have weeds. Jesus looks at the disciples who knows all spirituality they know how to pray, they know how to kneel down, they know how to read the Bible, they know how to please God, and they know how to sing a song. They know how to do everything except living. Jesus says, I will teach you how to live. Don't uproot evil Personalities in your life. Then comes a question, so what do I do about that? Jesus says don't do anything about them. Ignore them who provoke you. Ignore people who bring stress to you. Ignore people who stop your growth. Ignore people who are an obstacle for you. Do what disciples ask, Jesus says. Focus in what I have called you to do. You know what is the trick the devil uses to take your joy. He tries to focus on the evil which is happening. The only way you can enjoy God and see God everywhere is by being focused in what God has called you to do. Ladies and gentlemen, I want to tell you something today. You just got to keep what God has called you to do. Are you talented in something, just be doing it yes, I know you're tired about people. I request you just don't speak about them. Ignore them. The Bible says Jesus said to the disciple if you would follow this strategy, victory is yours.

Dr. VGP: Wow, you just heard the profound Prophet Kiran Murali saying victory is yours. He talks about the need to ignore people who provoke you. That's right. Ignore people who stress you out. Ignore people who try to put obstacles to you. Ignore people who try to stop your growth and focus on God, and focus on your talent, focus on what you do best focus on positivity and you will see how you grow rather than dwell on the negative side and the critics. Prophet you have so well addressed these issues to prove to us that following simple principles in life, by leaving it to God and not trying to be a problem solver. By reading the Bible the word of God which anybody can do you don't have to be a believer in Jesus Christ. A non-believer people from all religions could also pray to the almighty God and talk to God to enter your lives and follow God's plan. Take time to pause in your life. Spend time with God. Once you spend that quality time with God just like you set a time to eat your breakfast. Everything, you have an appointed time for you but do you have time for God in your life? We are here today because of God's creation. I think Prophet Kiran Murali is reiterating the fact to all of us. I would request you all to take a serious call because our life on this Earth is a temporary Journey. You know you may have the best of houses, the best of cars, the best of friends and the best quality of life but if you don't have faith in God you have lost it all. Prophet Kiran Murali is available as I said before EVANGELISTCKIRAN@YAHOO.CO.IN. Call him he would respond to your email if you have a prayer request. If somebody is sick in your family, somebody is wanting direction and guidance as somebody wants to start a new business, want to know in the right direction, it's only a phone call or an email away to seek God and you can do it yourself. Also by speaking to God like Prophet has said and finding out from God having a conversation with god it's about time. Instead of criticizing we open the newspaper switch on the TV news all we can see if 20 people are dead or this weekend shot over gun violence, this Plane crashed or an accident or Ukraine Russia war. What can each of us do ourselves to make this better place is to surrender to God. Have God take over our lives. Listen to God. Have God speak to each of one of us. If that happens could you imagine what a wonderful peaceful prosperous world this would be and that's what Prophet Kiran Murali is talking about and we would like. As we're coming to close this interview we'd like to ask him some questions about how does such a busy person like him who is most sought after by the presidents of different countries, various Evangelist, and by the so-called religious leaders of all Faith who want to seek his counsel to see if they're in the right direction. Tomorrow he is flying out to Dallas to have a huge prophecy meet with Kenneth Copeland Ministries, he was there the other day in Indonesia talking to the prime minister's advisor, in Malaysia to Deputy Chief Minister was talking to him.

Prophet Kiran Murali, if you have to take three people out for dinner from the past or present who would those three people be?

Prophet Murali: I will take my father & mother, my brother, my wife and my daughter. I embrace family is a blessing from God. And that's something what God taught me. I want you to honor your family. So there's something three people who like to take, it'll be my parents my brother my wife and daughter.

Dr. VGP: Amazing, this is the first-time friends I've heard on my talk show this answer. We've done more than 30 episodes but first time somebody is saying that three people they would like to take out for dinner is a family. And that not is important on that note Prophet how important is family in one's life.

Prophet Murali: How do you describe the Bible? What is this Bible about? The Bible is about God calling his children as his family the reason Jesus died on the cross of Calvary was not a proposal of just Deliverance or Redemption? It was an invitation to come to Jesus as a family. So Jesus loves family very much you. Family is something where we always think about. Probably during Thanksgiving, probably during Christmas, probably during birthday occasion. I tell you if you understand God, you will understand the importance of loving your family. And God taught this too to me. He said my son, you must never forsake your family by saying that you are my servant. He said first is me. Second your family third is the work what I give to you. In God's list family is number one priority.

Dr. VGP: Wonderful to know that family is number one priority in God's list. Prophet Kiran Murali how would you describe yourself in three words?

Prophet Murali: I would say that I am a man who loves God and I'm a man who tries to understand the love of God and I am a person who's found the grace to be under the blessing of Jesus Christ.

DR VGP : Prophet Kiran Murali with all your time of fasting and praying and taking care of other people's burdens of the phone calls and your personal visits and your crusades and rallies, do you do have any time for any Hobbies or passion?

Prophet Murali: I like driving with my family. My wife specially my daughter. I have a four-year-old daughter. We love driving. One thing when we don't Minister, when we have free time we drive a lot. We like taking long rides in the middle of the night and having our ice cream and having food in the car. Having conversation through early in the morning. We love doing what we love driving and traveling.

Dr. VGP: That's lovely to know that the Prophet Kiran Murali who's highly anointed servant of God leads a normal family life. He likes long drives during the stress busters or you call the pastime a hobby. Having ice cream at midnight, having long conversations with his four-year-old daughter and his lovely wife Felicia. Pastor I'm sorry Prophet Kiran Murali we'd like you to close with a message to all our viewers that Jesus is Alive today and then give a prayer of blessing to every one of us.

Prophet Murali: The Bible says ask it shall be given to you knock it shall be open you know there's something what God wants you to understand. There is power in asking. The problem what I see in people is we find it difficult to ask. We find it so easy to ask with the family, with our friends, with our boss, with the relatives with the neighbours but when it comes to God they don't practice. The Bible says in Matthew 7:7 ask it shall be given to you knock it shall open that simply means you gotta just let your desires known to God. Whatever it could be you will receive an answer I'm going to share a short story there was a postman living in Africa. So every day he used to travel 20 miles on his bicycle and he was a living in the valley of a jungle. So he has to cross the jungle to go to the post office. He was doing this for many years. One day when he finished his work he finished his work very late so he wanted to quickly go to his house so he was peddling and peddling and pedaling and as we all do he tried to take a shortcut. And he's trying to go inside the jungle and he was peddling and unfortunately it became dark so he was trying to pedal and trying to find his way and he felt something was very unusual as he was peddling he felt that something was touching his bicycle and he thought it was a stone it was something an obstacle and all of a sudden he could feel something was running behind him so he just stopped a little bit he slowed down a little bit to look back and he found three full-grown African lions running with him imagine that he was shocked he fell down he started to run in the jungle he didn't know which way he was running he was running in every direction he was running in circles and these lions powerful Lions as he described it just swung his hand upon him he fell down at seams The Three Lions came and they were about to take him as their meal and all of a sudden he remembered his Sunday school teacher teaching him this verse ask it shall be given...

Dr. VGP: Amen

Prophet Murali: Knock it shall be opened. At the point of desperation at the point he was missing his life. he was missing his family he was seeing the giant Beast three humongous powerful beasts which was just about to take a Slave he said Jesus help me Jesus help me Jesus help me he screamed the name of Jesus closing his eyes and he thought his life is over and slowly opened his eyes The Three Lions look down. They never raised themselves. till he picked up his bicycle and he started to pass amen can I tell you something this Postman went back to his house he shook his wife he said we found life amen he said what happened he said my beloved wife all these years we were living a mediocratic life I lived a very hypocritic life but today when I call the name of Jesus the beasts became like pet dogs before me and I want to tell you my wife that we can live this life in this world with joy because there is a God Called Jesus who will answer every prayer what we make amen Do you know what he did? he went to the post office he told to his government I am resigning this job there is no security ahead in this job in this world Jesus has called me to tell everybody ask it shall be given to you he became a missionary in Africa and do you know where I found the story I found it in the Discovery Channel wow the channel of this world Television this Postman story I want to tell you the children of God this world has so many beasts poverty is a beast sickness is a beast Brokenness is a beast isolation abuse depression anxiety separation divorce if you are with those singleness is a beast the only way you can overcome the Beast call the call upon Jesus wherever you are whatever jungle you are whatever mess you are no I'm unredeemable you might say but remember what happened to the postman he called the name of Jesus he thought that was the last prayer but that became his first day of Victorious Life

Dr. VGP: Hallelujah

Prophet Murali: Hallelujah. It was just one prayer towards your Victorious Life yes ask God everything to you he knows how to redeem you amen he knows how to save you he knows how to lift you he knows how to give you Joy ask it shall be given to you.

Dr. VGP: Ask and it shall be given to you knock and it will open what a wonderful amazing testimony you heard from Prophet Kiran Murali Jesus help me is the cry every one of us should have as we go into our day-to-day lives as we reach out in our own occupations because you know ask and it shall be open knock ask and it shall be given knock and it shall be opened Prophet could you give us a blessing of prayer for all our viewers and all of us at

Advocacy and Public Policy

“Achyuth Sarath is a soon-to-be college freshman and moved to Frisco, Texas in 2019 from his hometown of Lake Zurich, Illinois. He will be studying Communication, Legal Institutions, Economics, and Government (CLEG) at American University at Washington, D.C. in the Fall of 2023 as a member of the Politics, Policy, and Law Scholars Program, and is passion about advocacy and public policy.”

By Achyuth Sarath

Amidst the ever-changing landscape of American politics, the voices of youth voters have emerged in loudly calling for attention, representation, and transformative change. For the most part, Gen Z Americans have gotten involved in politics because of the feeling that we, as a nation, are simply not doing enough to address the pressing needs of a changing world. As someone who has just graduated high school and is a newly-registered voter, I can attest to the fact that young voters are more motivated than ever to vote because we are already experiencing the effects of inaction and bad policy-making by those in power. Three of the most notable issues include the environment, gun violence, and an increasingly authoritarian government. One of the most notable examples of inaction and bad-policy making by those currently in office is with the environmental policy. We have a climate crisis that is quickly spiraling out of control. According to the World Meteorological Organization (WMO), global temperatures are now ‘more likely than not’ to breach 1.5 degrees Celsius of warming within the next five years. This catastrophic result could lead to absolutely devastating consequences for the United States and the rest of the world; coral reefs could almost completely die off, melting polar ice could lead to mass flooding in coastal areas, and food shortages would become relentlessly common. Although environmental scientists and advocates have corroborated these truths multiple times over, politicians have opted to continue along the path of oil drilling, minimal investment into green energy, and accepting huge corporate donations from the fossil fuel industry. Republican presidential candidates, such as Former UN Ambassador and Governor Nikki Haley of South Carolina, have gone so far as to promise rollbacks on green energy subsidies as a part of their energy “plans”. Young voters are not just concerned by the lack of action on such a pressing crisis—they are upset. They are upset that, despite hard evidence showing that this sort of reckless behavior could lead to irreversible and damning consequences that could affect millions, government officials are still unwilling to take the transformative steps needed to shift US policy. The orange skies and unbreathable air that New England recently experienced from wildfires that are widespread and out of control won’t be the outlier if our nation refuses to take action—they will be the norm. While many speak of ‘pragmatic’ or ‘incremental’ change, the fact is that the time has passed for any government to be making small steps in this area. Change needs to happen, and it must happen as soon as possible.

The environment isn’t the only area of policy that poses a disturbingly immediate threat, particularly to youth voters. Our schools—places we go to learn and create a stable future for ourselves and our families—are no longer safe for teachers or students. Of all places, violence is happening in classrooms; places where students go to LEARN so that they, too, can have a future ahead of themselves. Their dreams and goals are being abruptly ripped away not just by the criminals that shoot them, but by the broken system that enables said criminals. School shootings have become all too common for young people in America. Generation Z has grown up with the trauma of not just going through frequent active shooter drills but having to put said drills into practice. Why have our elected officials failed to take action time and time again? Even after Las Vegas, Orlando, Columbine, Buffalo, Sandy Hook, Parkland, and Uvalde, we’ve yet to see any major action cracking down on gun violence besides President Biden’s Bipartisan Safer Communities Act. How many more parents will be forced to bury their children before our elected officials choose to prioritize the lives of young people over lining their pockets with corporate cash? Major loopholes still exist within the federal background check system—Americans can still purchase firearms without any sort of background checks at gun shows and from unlicensed sellers, safe storage of firearms is not required by law, and the gun industry is still unable to be held liable for the reckless murder that happens with their weapons of war. To be clear, not even close to a majority of Gen Z voters believe that guns should be banned. However, gun crime has reached an unbearable point and requires immediate action. The only thing I should be scared of in school is the grade I got on my latest test, not whether I could get shot. The choice is simple—we can either keep the status quo and let hundreds of more children die, or we can vote out those that have sold themselves to the NRA and the gun lobby.

But where the political landscape fundamentally lacks in its response to pressing issues that require attention, it makes up for with cheap attacks against minority communities that are studying to defend themselves and their rights. Women, people of color, and LGBTQIA+ are being attacked en masse in a series of culture wars and cheap tactics to win votes. Since the overturning of Roe v Wade, at least 26 states have either banned, restricted, or attempted to ban access to abortion. States like Florida have attacked the LGBTQIA+ community relentlessly by blocking access to gender-affirming care, practically erasing any sort of safety net for queer youth, and have even taken steps to ban certain books from school. Voters in Georgia are being subject to archaic laws that prohibit drinking water while waiting in line to vote, and voters in Texas are having to drive unreasonable distances and wait in ever-growing lines due to laws that created a limit of one vote drop-box per county, no matter how densely or sparsely populated. Time after time, youth voters are seeing politicians who ran on the idea of decreasing government intervention in the average American’s daily life suddenly vote for legislation that creates something out of a George Orwell novel. We’ve reached a point in American history where it is somehow easier to buy an assault weapon and commit crimes than it is to come out as transgender.

The most concerning part of the questionable and concerning point in history that we find ourselves in is the sort of response that’s been given to Generation Z’s advocacy, calls for change, and work for a better future. After record-breaking youth turnout in the 2022 midterm elections that ultimately decided more than a few races, some called for restrictions on youth voting power. GOP Presidential Candidate Vivek Ramaswamy has even proposed raising the voting age for most Americans to 25 years of age. This shortsighted and dangerous idea is far from the way to win youth voters. No matter how much youth voters are blocked from voting, the fact is that Generation Z will be the predominant voting block in the United States sooner or later. The solution should be to take action on issues, not attempt to suppress the voices that are begging for the issues to be addressed.

In conclusion, the youth perspective on US politics is a vibrant and dynamic force that continually shaped our nation’s political landscape. Right now, it focuses on one simple truth—the government is failing to adequately respond to a swath of pressing issues. Even aside from the environment, gun violence, and authoritarianism in government, there are numerous issues that young Americans are concerned about. The mental health epidemic, poor labor standards and unchecked corporate power, abysmal healthcare coverage, student loan debt, and the continually increasing cost of education are all topics that are just as important as the ones previously mentioned. Generation Z is not ready to be complacent or just accept the way that things are as the way that things will always be. We are the most politically active generation in decades and will be voting, running for office, and fighting for the change that we want to see in our nation for years to come. The only way we, as Americans, will be able to enact change will be through voting. So as a closing note, I’d like to encourage anyone and everyone who reads this to register to vote if you’re 18 or older. Please turn out to vote not just in the Presidential election, but in your elections for senators, representatives, governors, state senators and representatives, mayors, school board members, and more. Change starts from the ground up, and it takes just one voice to make a difference. I look forward to helping make that difference, and I hope to see many others pushing for it too.

U.K. PM Sunak to make whole-life sentences mandatory for heinous murderers

The new law will place a legal expectation on judges to hand down whole-life orders, except in extremely limited circumstances

British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak has unveiled plans for tough new laws which would mean those convicted of heinous murders will face life behind bars for the rest of their lives, with no chance of being considered for parole or early release. The 43-year-old British Indian leader said in a statement on August 26 that "life means life" and judges will be required to hand down mandatory whole-life orders to criminals who commit the most horrific types of murder. The new law will place a legal expectation on judges to hand down whole-life orders, except in extremely limited circumstances.

"I have shared the public's horror at the cruelty of crimes we have seen recently. People rightly expect that in the most serious cases, there should be a guarantee that life will mean life. They expect honesty in sentencing," said Mr.

Sunak. By bringing in mandatory whole-life orders for the heinous criminals who commit the most horrific types of murder, we will make sure they never walk free," he said. It comes in the days after nurse Lucy Letby was handed a whole-life order after being found guilty of killing seven newborn babies under her care at a hospital in northern England. The U.K.'s statutory provisions do not allow capital punishment and therefore the toughest sentence to be handed down is a whole-life term. By putting things on a legal footing, Downing Street said judges will have greater confidence to hand out whole-life orders without risk of challenge in the Courts of Appeal. Under the legal shake-up, whole-life orders will also be the default sentence for any sexually motivated murders.

"A whole-life order will now be the expectation for murderers where the killing involves sexual or sadistic conduct. This important law change will ensure that the worst of the worst can now expect to spend the rest of their lives in prison," said U.K. Justice Secretary Alex Chalk. The U.K. government said it will legislate for the changes announced in due course, as Parliament returns from its summer recess next month.

Hawaii authorities evacuate area of Lahaina due to brush fire near site of deadly blaze

At least 115 people were killed and 2,000 structures destroyed when a wildfire tore through downtown Lahaina on August 8. Minimal rains have pushed the area into drought

A brush fire on Saturday prompted Maui authorities to evacuate residents from a neighborhood of Lahaina, just a few miles from the site recently ravaged by blazes. An evacuation order had been issued for a residential part of Lahaina in the hills above Kaanapali resort hotels, the Hawaii Emergency Management Agency said. The order was for an area around Anapuni Loop, the agency said in a post on X, the social media platform formerly known as Twitter. Later, Maui County said in an Instagram post that firefighters had "stopped forward progress of the fire." It wasn't immediately clear how many people were affected by the evacuation order. At least 115 people were killed and 2,000 structures destroyed when a wildfire tore through downtown Lahaina on August 8. Minimal rains have pushed the area into drought. That fire was exacerbated by strong trade winds fueled in part by Hurricane Dora, which passed by 500 miles (800 kilometers) to the south of Maui. The National Weather Service forecast breezes of 3 to 8 mph (4.8 to 12 kph) for Lahaina on Saturday afternoon.

17 Indian youths stranded in Libya released from jail: MP Vikramjit Sahney

They were cheated (the amount varies from person to person) by some unscrupulous travel agents on the pretext of sending them to Italy for lucrative jobs.

CHANDIGARH: Seventeen Indian youths from Punjab and Haryana who were stranded in Libya for the last six months were released from the jail in Tripoli yesterday.

Member of Parliament of Rajya Sabha from Punjab Vikramjit Singh Sahney said that they were cheated (the amount varies from person to person) by some unscrupulous travel agents on the pretext of sending them to Italy for lucrative jobs.

All of them left India for Italy in February 2023 via Dubai then Egypt and after a few days, they were landed in Libya and kept in Zuwara City, where they were being deprived of basic amenities like food and water and causing physical assault. Sahney said that when he got to know about it in May this year, he got in touch with the Indian Embassy in Tunisia and initiated the legal process for rescuing all these boys. "My office was in constant touch with these boys and their families. Initially, our major concern was to take them out from the captivity of the local mafia," he said. Sahney further said that they were detained in an under-construction building by an armed group from where the police took their custody. "On June 13 with the help of Libyan police, we made these boys run and accommodated them in a hotel at Zuwara City, Libya. My office was in touch with these youths throughout the night till this rescue operation got over in the early morning. Later, they were kept at a detention centre on June 15 and then we initiated the legal process to get their consular access," he said.

Sahney said on Saturday the process of getting their consular access got over and Libyan authorities released them from jail and kept them in Tripoli till arrangements for their travel documents viz Emergency Certificate to ensure their smooth, safe repatriation to India were arranged by them. Sahney said he will be sponsoring all legal expenses and flight tickets for the youth coming back to their home. On reaching India, Sahney's office will offer them free of cost skilling and provide them with job opportunities so that they don't have to go abroad in search of Jobs.

DR. PADMAVATHI, INDIA'S FIRST LADY CARDIOLOGIST

Burma, they briefly returned to their traditional home in Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu. In 1949, she went to London, UK to do an FRCP, then unimaginable for a Female Indian doctor. She was selected to study further at Johns Hopkins University, USA, where she trained under the legendary cardiologist Helen Taussig. Thereafter, she moved to Harvard University, where she trained under the Father of Cardiology- Paul Dudley White. When a glorious cardiology career awaited her in the USA, she was firm in returning to India and serving Indians. She joined Lady Hardinge Medical College, New Delhi, India in 1953, to become India's First Lady Cardiologist. S.I.Padmavathi started India's first Cathlab and exclusive Cardiac Clinic. Started India's first DM Cardiology course. She founded the All India Heart Foundation (AIHF) in 1962, to serve the poor and needy. She joined Maulana Azad Medical College (MAMC), Delhi, India in 1967, by which time her fame had spread. The Indian Govt under Indira Gandhi honored her with the Padma Bhushan, that year. She was the cardiologist and administrator of 3 great colleges at the same time- MAMC, G.B.Pant Hospital, Delhi and Lok Nayak Hospital, Delhi. She retired as Director, MAMC in 1978. She set up the National Heart Institute (NIH) in 1981, at Delhi. At age 90, Padmavathi became a fellow of The European Society of Cardiology in 2007. Till age 95, (year 2015), Padmavathi worked 12 hours a day, five days a week, to serve poor and needy Indians, with state-of-the-art Cardiac Care. She retired from active practice, that year. started the Janaki-Padmavathi trust, pouring in their entire earnings to start a trust to provide poor people with money for life-saving Heart Surgeries. After dedicating her entire life to serving the poor in the field of Cardiology, S.I.Padmavathi passed away in 2020, at age 103 from #Coronavirus. Imagine the steely resolve, vision, brilliance and sheer determination of this iron-lady to shatter the glass ceiling in achieving all these, serving poor Indians with quality cardiac care, and finally giving away all her wealth to her fellow citizens. Most of the DMs I get are about: How do I get through USMLE or PLAB? What salaries can I get? Quality of Life? Citizenship? Here is an inspiring story of the first female cardiologist of India, who achieved so much by returning to her country. Tamilnadu and India should be mighty proud of their daughter- Sivaramakrishna Iyer Padmavathi!

100th BIRTHDAY: AUGUST 22, 1923 - AUGUST 22, 2023

LILY PRABHAKAR, Founder President, CHOH.

GLOBAL VISIONARY MRS. LILY PRABHAKAR

100th BIRTH CENTENARY

AUGUST 22 ,2023 . I vividly remember in 1963-64 during the Indo-China war , when my mom as the wife of the District Collector of Madurai District in TamilNadu went house to house for nearly 50-60 days continuously for GOLD COLLECTION for India's NATIONAL DEFENCE FUND when the women of the house voluntarily took off their gold bangles , gold chains , gold earrings or gold rings and put it in the basket my Mom was carrying soliciting GOLD with the Tahisldars & Other District officials . In 1964 India's then PRIME MINISTER LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI flew down to Madurai to honor my Mom, Lily Prabhakar as she collected the Maximum amount of GOLD in whole of India- Madurai District topped the Country's NDF collection.

I then saw the patriotic spirit at its highest , no questions asked at all by the women in the household , who just took off any one of their gold ornaments and donated to INDIA's NATIONAL DEFENSE FUND.I used to accompany my Mom daily as the youngest child and witnessed this epic gold collection drive that year.

The Lady of Love Mrs Lily Prabhakar established the Leprosy Care and Rehabilitation Association in 1966 as the wife of the Collector of Chingleput District . Then in 1969 opened the FIRST HOME FOR LEPROSY CHILDREN in the WORLD in a rented building in Madras aka Chennai, Tamil Nadu.

In 1971 , Mother LILY PRABHAKAR built the CHILDREN's HOME OF HOPE in Maduravoyal , Chennai and today the Lily Prabhakar Children's Home of Hope is providing hundreds of children over the last 54 years education from LKG to High School and College including providing post college jobs and facilitating their marriages . The CHOH residential campus building was rebuilt in 2013 by my elder sister INDRANI SIVARAM , the current President & her husband late NARJALA SIVARAM along with the CHOH Executive Committee at a cost of INR 4 Crores rupees plus in a state of art building. Lily Prabhakar is the wife of late E. C. P. Prabhakar IAS (Retired) and the mother of Indrani Sivaram, Samuel (Prabhu) & Vijay (DR. VGP) .

Our Mother Lily Prabhakar is a Mother to thousands of children and her legacy continues indeed as the LADY OF LOVE even today ... To our Almighty God Alone Be The Glory Now & Always . Amen.

How Pepsi got a navy*

So, think of yourself in a position like Pepsi during 1971. Your Pepsi syrup is being mixed in bottles and drank in the USSR. You're the first soda company to be nationalized in the USSR. This is great, one problem. The USSR's currency (Russian rubles) is worth nothing outside of the USSR. So, what to do? Go back to your pre-money instincts and partake in bartering. Bartering is a thing where no money is involved; say, I want your water bottle, but there is a problem; I need money. So, I offer you stuff. I have toys, a cricket bat (even my phone if I'm dying), and we either agree or disagree, and if we agree, I get your water bottle, and you get my phone. Or if we disagree, you keep your water bottle, and I die. The whole disagreeing thing is the entire reason we invented money. Money is that median in which everyone wants it, and money boosted the economy because instead of disagreeing on something. If I always have money, you want it; if I gave you enough money for your water bottle, it's a fair trade. Bartering is the best thing to do when you are either in the launch room bartering for snacks or literally must pay someone for all that Pepsi you just got. (Were moving back to the story now) Pepsi now had to initiate bartering to get their money's worth, so they began the process. And they did think of something, Russian vodka was what they landed, and after that, Pepsi got its money's worth, and that's how the story- WAIT, I thought this was about how Pepsi got a navy, not how it gave people a taste of Russian made vodka. If you were thinking this exact statement, you would be right. Our story doesn't end here. So what happened was economics. What I mean by that is that the value of Russian vodka literally died along with Pepsi's earnings from the USSR. Pepsi and the USSR immediately went back to the drawing board. After thinking hard, the USSR offered a cruiser, a destroyer, a frigate, and 17 submarines. Both sides immediately agreed, and Pepsi now had a navy (even though they were about to be scrapped for profit), which does not end the tale. There was a huge bombshell I'm about to drop, and I'm just going to come out and say it. It never happened. No Pepsi was sailing around with giant warships; it didn't even happen. The very next day, the USSR offered up ten tankers and freighters, some big and some small. And that finally ends the tale of how Pepsi really was never going to bomb the coca cola HQ.

Global Thought Leaders convene in Pietermaritzberg for 4 day Gandhi Mandela King Conference (June 6-9)

Nishika Dubey

The four-day conference was held at University of Kwazulu Natal, Pietermaritzburg to celebrate the 130th anniversary of Mohandas Gandhi's eviction from the First-Class compartment on June 7th, 1893. The conference, which honors the legacies of Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela, and Martin Luther King Jr., brought together world leaders, scholars, and activists to discuss and promote non-violence, equality, and human rights. The conference began with GMK youth symposium on Tuesday, June 6th which saw young minds from the city and the rest of the world convene to explore ways in which the legacies of Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela and Martin Luther King Jr. are still relevant and needed in the society today, by achieving justice for all through non-violence. Over 150 youths attended the 4 day Gandhi Mandela King Conference 2023.

Nishika Dubey (12), the youngest speaker at the GMK Youth Symposium, travelled from Chicago to attend and participate in the GMK Conference in Pietermaritzburg. She presented a paper on Gandhiji's views on health emphasizing on the famous quote: "Health is the real Wealth and not pieces of Gold and Silver." Nishika said she connected with Gandhiji's teachings from a young age, after learning about him at school and working on school project Reflections. She said she feels privileged and grateful to be given the opportunity to attend, speak and share her insights and experiences, alongside renowned leaders and scholars at this Global Conference. Her goal was to touch upon the importance of youth engagement in promoting peace and social justice, drawing inspiration from the teachings and legacies of Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela, and Martin Luther King Jr. Despite her young age, Nishika has already made a significant impact through her community involvement, inspiring and mobilizing people from all walks of life to work towards a more inclusive and just society.

Speaking on the role of youth and her generation to live out the teachings of Gandhi, Mandela and King, she said that while it is often said children are the future, "children are in fact actually the present". "We just can't be saying things, we need to seize the present moment we find ourselves into being doers". She encouraged young people to use available technology and social media to be advocates for change and start a global movement, like Gandhi created, before the age of social media. Nishika Dubey's inclusion as the youngest speaker at the Gandhi Mandela King Conference serves as a testament to the power and influence of young voices in shaping a better future for all. Her commitment and passion exemplify the spirit of the conference and the principles it upholds.
